

The Battle of Neighbourhoods

Alen Adiyev

Introduction/Problem:

- ▶ New York City is experiencing a Chinese food renaissance. There are a lot of spots in the city with the Chinese food available.
- ▶ In this project we will try to find an optimal location for a restaurant. Specifically, this report will be targeted to stakeholders interested in opening a Chinese restaurant in Manhattan, New York City, USA.
- ▶ Since there are lots of restaurants in New York City, and Manhattan specifically, we will try to detect locations that are not already crowded with restaurants. We are also interested in areas with no Chinese restaurants in nearby.
- ▶ We will use our data science powers to compare different neighborhoods in Manhattan. Advantages of each area will then be clearly expressed so that best possible final location can be chosen by stakeholders.
- ▶ The main purpose of this project is answer following questions:
 - ▶ Visualize which parts of the city have Chinese Restaurants
 - ▶ Identify the best area for Chinese Cuisine in Manhattan
 - ▶ Identify the areas which lack the Chinese Restaurants
- ▶ Answering this three questions will help to answer the main problem question:
 - ▶ What is best place to open new Chinese Restaurant in Manhattan?

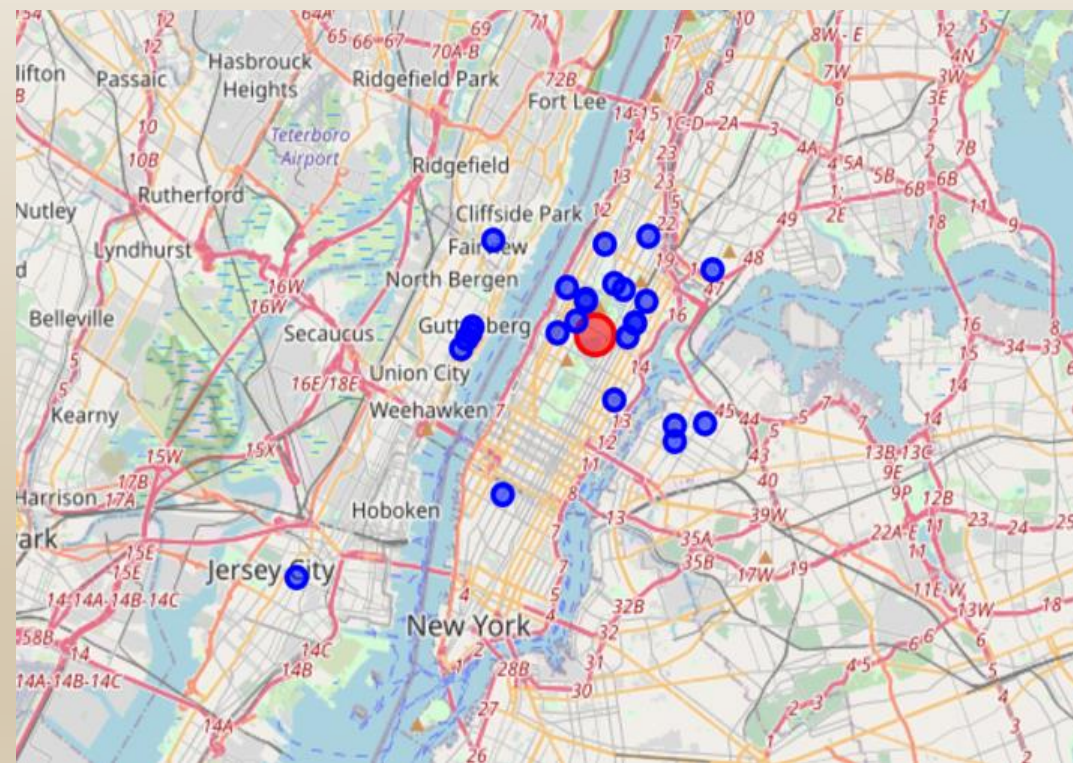

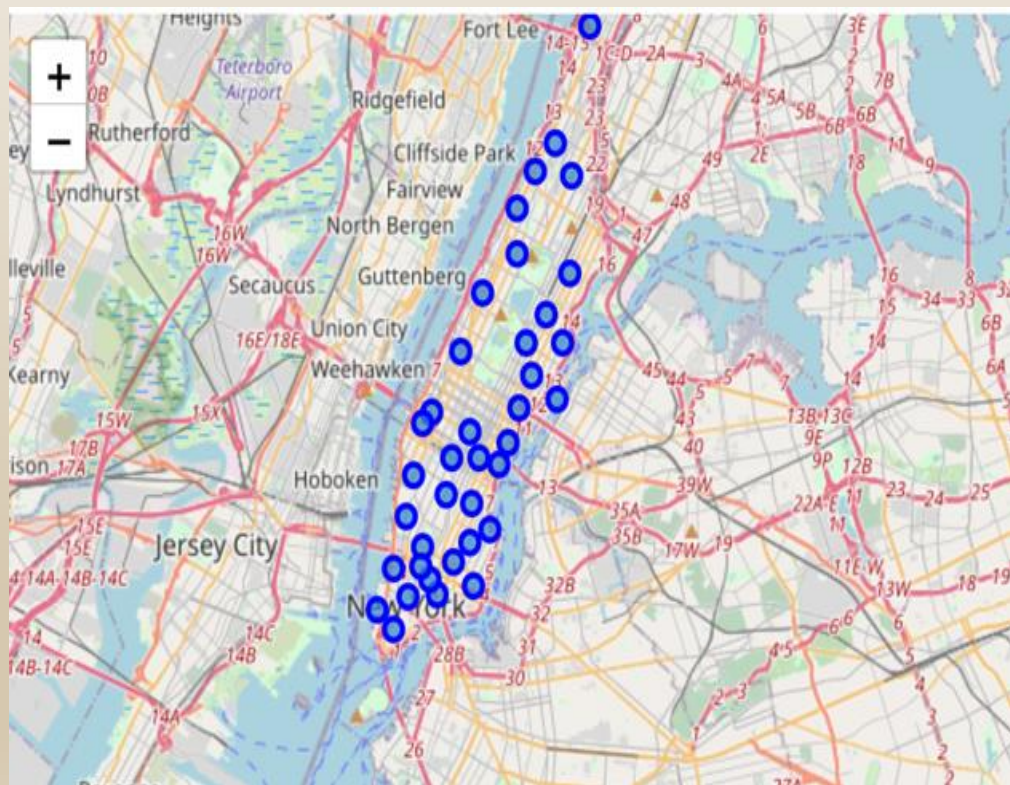

Data Section:

To find the solution to the main problem the following data will be used:

- Source: https://cocl.us/new_york_dataset
 - This New York City Neighborhood Names point file was created as a guide to New York City's neighborhoods that appear on the web resource, "New York: A City of Neighborhoods."
- Source: Foursquare API
 - The data source will be used to find location of the Chinese restaurants in each neighborhood of Manhattan.
- Above data sources will be needed to extract/generate the required information:
 - location for the NYC center
 - center addresses of candidate neighborhoods
 - number of restaurants and their type and location in every neighborhood will be obtained using Foursquare API

Conclusion:

- Based on the result of the project the following recommendations for the stakeholders can be made:
- The best location for new Chinese restaurant is considered to be the Southern part of Manhattan
- The Project also took Jersey City into considerations. So, the center of Jersey City was found to be the best place for the potential Chinese restaurant.
